RESPONSE TO RESTRICTION REQUIREMENT

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

In response to the Office Action dated September 15, 2005, Applicant has amended the claims, partially rendering moot the Restriction Requirement.

More particularly, Applicant has amended Groups III and V to depend from claim 1 of Group I. Accordingly, while Applicant provisionally elects the claims of Group I for prosecution, Applicant notes that, as amended, Group I now includes claims 1-12, 14-26 (formerly Group III) and 28 (formerly Group V).

Claim 13 (Group II) is canceled, without prejudice.

Claim 16 (Group III) is canceled, without prejudice.

Finally, Applicant traverses the restriction of Group IV (claim 27), insofar as it has been amended to more clearly recite the invention. Specifically, claim 27 is presently amended to recite, "[a] method of using an initiator explosive device to initiate an explosive reaction...". Accordingly, Group IV (claim 27) is clearly related to the “initiator explosive device” of claim 1, and there is little, if any, added burden by maintaining the claims of original Groups I, III, IV and V for simultaneous prosecution.

For these reasons, reconsideration of the restriction requirement is requested.

In the event there are additional issues which may be resolved by telephone, the Examiner is encouraged to contact the undersigned attorney at the telephone number listed below.

Respectfully submitted,
